“I love having that sense of freedom in my own home. No walls, no windows blocking you in. It’s great to have such an unobstructed view right through the house, onto the rest of the property and the valley beyond. For me, that’s the perfect way to live.”

“We love having our own little spa retreat, right in the middle of our green garden. And with bi-folding doors on two sides, we’ve always got an unobstructed view of the nature all around us. We especially enjoy opening up the facade and relaxing in the pool, surrounded by the wonders of nature. It’s a truly unique experience. It gives a whole new meaning to the idea of ‘getting away from it all’.”

“We love life on the water – especially in summer, when the glass facade is usually open and the living room becomes an expansive patio. We watch the boats go by, and occasionally take a wild leap into the water to cool off.”

“We love travelling. What’s really inspiring to us is the way people live in more southern countries, where they take the indoors outside. And with our bi-folding door, that’s what we’ve got now, too – a little piece of holiday at home.”

“In winter, the sun lends the room a pleasant warmth. And if we open the door to the rest of the house, we can use that heat to warm up our living room, too. In summer, we open up the bi-folding door all the way to create a pergola – the perfect spot for all the family.”

“Whatever time of year we’re enjoying our home, every season has its own special charm. In spring and summer, when the garden is lush and green, all the glass gives us beautiful views from inside. But the wintergarden’s also our favourite place to nestle in for the winter. We love it when the sun shines through the glass roof, warming up our home. This is how we’ve always dreamed of living.”

“The bi-folding door gives us a nicely understated transition from inside to the outdoors. And what’s really great is the way the individual glass elements can be pushed to one side to save space. As soon as it’s warm enough, we open the glass elements. That way, it feels like we’re outside, even when we’re sitting at the kitchen island rather than on our patio.”

“We’ve always centred our lives around the point where our living space meets the garden, so we wanted to do something to really make the most of that space. The big glass facade was the perfect solution for us. When it’s open, our living and dining area is basically transformed into a pergola – it’s brilliant!”

“Where our kitchen is now, we used to have a covered patio. When we started the alterations, we knew we wanted to retain that open-air feel. These versatile bi-folding doors were the perfect solution. They allow us to open up the whole front of the space, turning our kitchen into a wonderful summer room.”
